

Members of the American InterContinental University System

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF POLICE ORGANIZATIONS

has partnered with American InterContinental University (AIU) and Trident University International (Trident) to offer members and their immediate family members¹ educational opportunities through flexible, quality, innovative academic programs. AIU and Trident can help you meet your educational goals through our ASSOCIATE, BACHELORS, MASTERS, and DOCTORAL PROGRAMS. With a rich tradition of serving busy working adults, the women and men in military service, AIU, and Trident are uniquely positioned to serve individuals who balance family and work commitments while striving to earn a quality education.

National Association of Police Organizations member and their immediate family receive:

19.5% Tuition Grant for undergraduate programs

26% Tuition Grant for graduate programs

10% Tuition Grant for Trident doctoral programs

Trident's EdActive™ Learning

Our learning model focuses on real-world problem solving to better prepare for today's workforce demands, rather than reaction and repetition.

AIU's Graduation Team Model

Students receive personalized support throughout their program from their Student Advisor, Financial Aid Advisor and Faculty Instructor.

Affordability at Trident

Students work to develop critical-thinking and problem-solving skills to enhance their educational development, all at an affordable price.

Flexibility

Our courses are structured to support and encourage progress; at the same time, students have the flexibility to manage their own schedules.

AIU and Trident are pleased to offer members the following educational benefits:

- Access to Professional Development Seminars
- Career Development Services
- Articulation of Internal Training
- Experienced Faculty
- Consideration of all prior learning for eligible transfer credit²
- Flexible programs – online, anywhere, anytime, 24/7
- Tuition Savings
